STRINGER NAMED PRESIDENT OF UROLOGICAL ASSOCIATION

Citrus Memorial Health System affiliated physician Tom Stringer, MD was recently named president of the Southeastern Section of the American Urological Association. As president, Dr. Stringer will be responsible for leading the Section as it strives to increase education and research in the field of urology.

The Southeastern Section of the American Urological Association is one of the many Sections of the American Urological Association, Inc. The AUA is an international organization of urologists, numbering more than 13,000. The Southeastern Section is composed of almost 2,100 urologists; all the active members having been certified by the American Board of Urology, practicing, teaching, and researching in 9 of the southeastern United States, Panama, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands. Numerically, this is the largest of all the Sections of the AUA. This Section continues to grow and contribute to the body of scientific knowledge in urology, as does the entire AUA. The American Urological Association, and each of its component Sections, is dedicated to the study, diagnosis, and treatment of diseases of the genitourinary tract in adult and pediatric patients.

Dr. Stringer is board certified in urology. He received his medical degree and completed a fellowship in urology at Wayne State University in Michigan and has been a member of Citrus Memorial's active medical staff since 1980. He is a member of Citrus Urology Associates in Inverness which can be reached at 726-9707.
